

”STATE OF BUILT ENVIRONMENT”

Background and objectives
Report Card Finland 2007
euroINFRA 2009-

Model 1 - USA

www.asce.org/reportcard/2005/index.cfm

Model 2 - UK

Institution of Civil Engineers :: News & Events :: Media Centre :: Government :: State of the Nation

OBJECTIVES

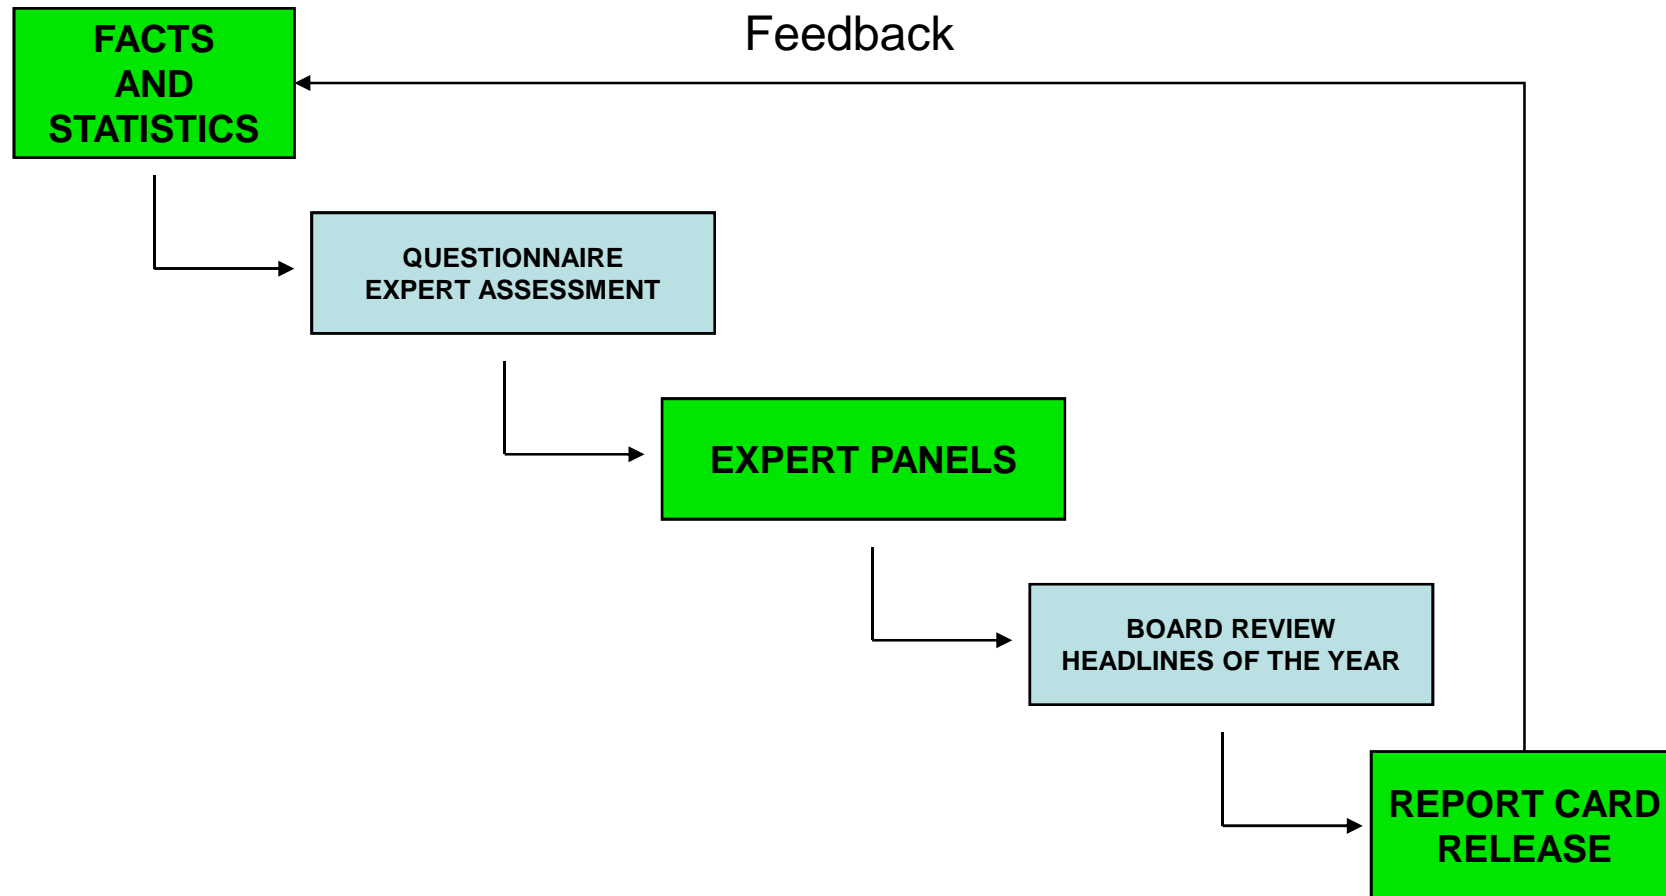

- ① To get information about the built environment in an understandable and simple format
- ② To find the “hot spots” of the built environment
- ③ To create actions and to show their effects
- ④ To gather qualified experts’ opinion
- ⑤ To create discussion
- ⑥ To increase public interest towards the built environment

TARGET GROUP

- ① Political decision-makers
- ② Ministries and other authorities
- ③ Industries
- ④ Media → greater public
- ⑤ Others
 - educational establishments
 - research institutes
 - communities

EVALUATION PROCESS

REPORT CARD

2007

Condition | Trend

Buildings

Detached houses and free time apartments	8+	▲
Apartment and row houses	7+	▲
Commercial and office buildings	8-	▶
Production buildings	7 1/2	▶
Public buildings	7+	▼

Traffic networks

Roads and streets	7	▼
Rail	7-	▼
Aviation	9 1/2	▶
Waterways	8-	▶

Waste and water

Waste	7+	▲
Water and wastewater	8-	▲
Dams and flood management	7+	▶

Future

Legislation and standards	8	▲
Urban planning	6+	▲
Development of industry	7	▲
Education	6	▶
R & D	6-	▼

Average	7+
---------	----	--

euroINFRA: why to scale to European level?

- Tested platform
- Proactive approach
- Scales to your needs
- Activates your members
- Provides facts to impact
- Positively visible
- Promotes the whole sector

→ From tangible results to real tools, with goodwill!

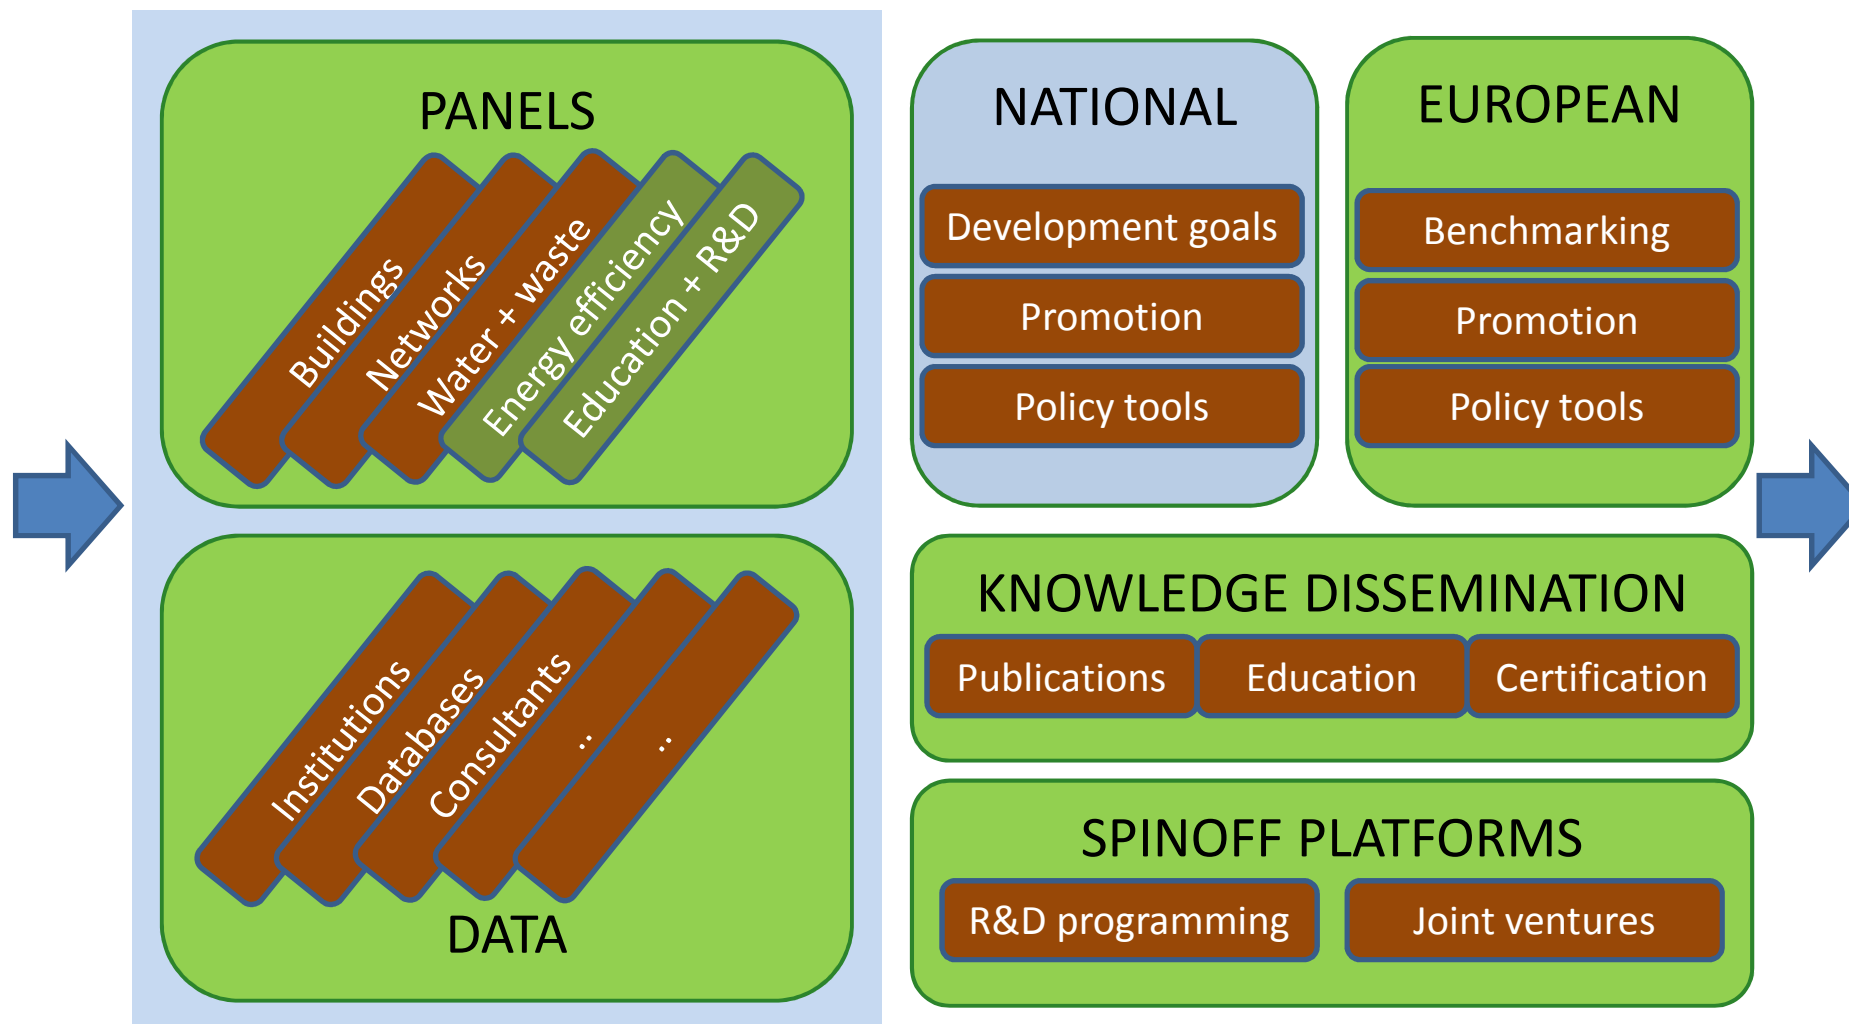

euroINFRA: vision

- Relevant group of member states' relevant institutions
- Reasonable amount of comparable indicators
- National data collection and specialist panels
- Geographical and content scalability
- European benchmarking, shared vision
- Cumulative databases
- Feedback loop, system & method development
- Policy tool for EU, national and global levels

→ Everybody knows

euroINFRA: structure

euroINFRA: how to participate

- Letter of interest
- Identification of national providers: data, funding
- European programming and funding
- National organization setup
- RIL training
- National execution
 - European benchmarking
 - Spinoffs
 - Remake

euroINFRA: questions & contacts

Finnish Association of Civil Engineers RIL

Teemu Vehmaskoski

Development Director

teemu.vehmaskoski@ril.fi

Helena Soimakallio

Managing Director

helena.soimakallio@ril.fi